

High School Requirements For Graduation

High School Requirements For Graduation - Requirements for high school graduation and university admission. In order to graduate from California public high schools, students must complete specified state and local graduation requirements. Local school districts have the authority and responsibility for establishing high school graduation requirements. This resource provides an overview of state high school graduation requirements. Nearly all states require students to complete a certain number of units per course to earn a standard diploma in the state; but courses, units and assessments outside of exit exams and diploma options vary. Graduation Requirements Courses required for graduation and university admission. The California Education Code (EC) establishes a minimum set of requirements for graduation from California high schools. Graduation Requirements Legislation. Florida students entering grade nine may choose from one of four options... Academic Advisement Flyer - What Students and Parents Need to Know. Standard High School Diploma Designations. State Assessments for High School Graduation. Transfer Students. If a ...